High Holborn House is situated on the north side of High Holborn, half way between Holborn and Chancery Lane tube stations. It is actually a few doors west of the Principal Registry.

The nearest Underground station is High Holborn (Central and Piccadilly Lines). The main exit from the station leads onto Southampton Row, the side exit (adjacent to the main entrance) leads onto High Holborn itself.

On leaving the station turn right into High Holborn and walk for about 200 yards until you reach a pedestrian crossing. Cross here to the opposite (north) side of the street and continue walking in the direction that you were going for a further 50 yards. The entrance to High Holborn House is situated between Maplin Electronics and Manpower. Go to the reception desk and you will be directed to our offices on the second floor.

There is no reserved parking. The simplest journey will normally be by taxi or Underground.

By Taxi:

The office is a 10 minutes from Euston, St. Pancras and Kings Cross Stations, 20 minutes from London Bridge, Victoria or Waterloo and 25 minutes from Paddington.

By Underground:

It is easiest to take whatever line services the mainline station that you arrive at and then change to the Central Line.
